

UI / UX Designer + Unity skills (m/f)

LOCATION Frankfurt Area / Germany

POSTED June 21st, 2019

JANEIOUS is a community funded and independently operating game studio.

The Studio was founded to put customers front and center in mobile games. We live up to this mission in all aspects of the company: Our shareholders are mobile gamers, our fans get to participate in all stages of game development and our office doors are open to our core community.

The JANEIOUS team, composed of industry veterans and new talents, works from Ireland, the UK, Malta and Germany while our community and shareholders come from all over the world.

If the requirements below are met and you can identify with our cause, prepare yourself for a journey of epic proportions and join us now.
